ANARCHISTS RULE NEAR END

COMPULSORY ARBITRATION RAILROAD DISPUTES REJECTED BY HOUSE

(By Associated Press)
CENTRALIA, Nov. 14.—Prosecution of Industrial Workers of the World, held here in connection with the Armistice day parade shooting Tuesday, will be pressed immediately, despite testimony introduced at the coroner's inquest yesterday. C. Cunningham, assistant district attorney, declared today. Cunningham made this statement in commenting upon testimony at the inquest by Dr. Frank Bickford, one of the marchers, to the effect that former soldiers attacked the I. W. W. before any shots were fired.

LACK OF MORALE IN RED ARMY

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Because of a serious lack of food in bolshevik controlled Russia and other economic difficulties experienced by the soviet government, not much real enthusiasm is felt in Moscow over the forward movement of bolshevik forces, according to advices to the state department. Dispatches said that due to the lack of morale in the soviet armies, Trotsky recently ordered forces following the bolshevik armies to fire on any Red soldier who fell back.

ARMY OFFERS SECRET GOODS

(By Associated Press)
SAN JOSE, Nov. 14.—Complaint that army officers of Camp Fremont have buried hundreds of wagonloads of canned goods in practice trenches near the camp, apparently to secrete such goods for their own use, was made today to Annette Adams, federal district attorney, by Mrs. Isabel Meriman, Santa Clara county humane officer.

CENTRALIA MAN SHOT BY GUARD

(By Associated Press)
CENTRALIA, Nov. 14.—C. Godfrey, who described himself as a mill worker, was shot in the shoulder early this morning as he was driving through Chehalis in an automobile. A former service man, acting as guard, fired the shot after Godfrey disregarded his command to halt, which was repeated several times.

TEACHERS HOLD CONFERENCE.

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 16.—Teachers of Lower Galilee held a conference at Tiberias recently to decide how certain Hebrew words should be pronounced, notably the word "Hebrew." It was decided to follow the example of Judea and Samaria and preserve different pronunciations for the Hebrew letter "bet" with and without a "dagesh." Judeans pronounce "bet" without the "dagesh" as "V." Galilee has always preferred the harsher sound of "B."

DISCUSSION OF BROTHERHOODS NEARING END

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The discussion of the demands of the four railroad brotherhoods for a revision of working conditions, which has been in progress between brotherhood chiefs and Director General Elkins all week, appeared today to be nearing an end. The principal question remaining in dispute is the demand of the brotherhoods for time and a half overtime for trainmen.

ANNUAL CONVENTION CAL. PRESS ASSOCIATION

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Print paper question and many other problems confronting the newspaper world today, particularly country and mail town newspapers, were discussed here today at the opening of the annual convention of the California Press Association. Major Fernbach of San Francisco was the first speaker, addressing the convention on the experience of newspaper men at the front. Other speakers took as topics, national advertising printing, postal zone rates, advertising and county organization.

UNIVERSITY MAY RECOGNIZE GOLF

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Nov. 13.—The possibilities of golf being recognized at Stanford university and the University of California as a major sport and as such, an athletic activity which will produce graduating credits, is again being discussed at both of those institutions as the result of a challenge issued by Berkeley to Stanford recently for a championship tournament between teams from both universities.

The challenge has been accepted and Fitzgerald Marx has been selected to make arrangements with Gustav Swartz, California's representative for the affair. "Lute" Nichols, graduate manager of California, is one of those who is strongly in favor of elevating golf to the status of a major sport.

The California players have secured the use of the Claremont County club links for practice and the Stanford men are endeavoring to secure the Menlo Country club links for their workouts.

Several years have elapsed since an attempt was made to have golf recognized as a major sport by the local universities and the idea of staging a match between Stanford and California never before has gone much further than a proposal to the athletic body. Interest this year is unusually keen, however, and every encouragement will be given in the promotion of the sport.

FIRE ALARM AT NOON.

The fire department was called to the residence of Frank Dunn, the attorney at noon today. An oil stove burner became overheated, causing a profusion of smoke. When the department arrived the flames had been extinguished. There was no damage to the building or furniture.

JAP RULE IN KOREA IS CELEBRATED

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 1.—Extra police from the provinces were summoned to Seoul and armed soldiers helped to patrol the city today, the ninth anniversary of the inauguration of Japanese rule in Korea. While nothing of great importance occurred, numerous arrests were made. All Japanese residents observed the anniversary by raising flags, and Koreans and so, and all Korean shops in the principal thoroughfares were closed as a counter-manifestation. Some of the shops were, however, opened later by the authorities. The streets were crowded with sightseers.

Lured and isolated attacks on police are reported from the provinces. In the north two Japanese mining experts were killed while on hunting.

ENGLISH WOMEN SEEK ADJUST

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 10.—Domestic servants affiliated with the National Federation of Women Workers are agitating for a standardized wage scale and the union's support of a program for enforcing improved conditions of service.

The proposals provide a minimum wage for all resident servants of £10 a year; set meal times, a half-hour for breakfast, one hour for dinner and a half-hour for tea; better sleeping accommodations, two hours free each day and a half-day holiday each week; a twelve-hour day, including time off; and four-week days vacation each year with full board and wages.
